Missouri Weekly Hay Summary

Some of the first hay of the season was cut in the southern part of the state this week. Yields vary widely depending on rainfall amounts. Generally, moisture is in good supply in Southeast Missouri and becomes increasingly dry as you move east. In southwest Missouri, extreme drought conditions are initiating some cow herd liquidation as evidenced by a 2500 head cow run at Joplin Regional Stockyards this week. There are reports of first cutting alfalfa producing a quarter of a ton per acre. Though temperatures moderated this week, the area concerned about dry weather has extended into Central Missouri where rainfall has been scarce. Demand for all hay is good for moderate supply. This week prices are steady to 10.00 per ton higher with some instances of 20.00 per ton higher. The Missouri Department of Agriculture has a hay hotline available for buyers and sellers.  *This is a delivered log report. It does not represent or imply prices paid for standing timber on your land. Values of standing timber can vary significantly from delivered due to the following: proximity to solid roads and saw mills, size of offering and proximity to other offerings, land terrain, prevailing conditions, quality, size, density, and species of timber.

Definitions:
  DIB = diameter inside bark at small end
  ¢BF = cents per board foot
 * Weighted Average = value of logs at the weighted average board foot price figured at Doyle Scale
  Logs = The prices in this report are for logs that are classified as U.S. Forestry grade one logs and more specifically described by the DIB and length in the report, as well as by:
 • three sides clear • both ends solid • determined to be sound and of good quality by buyer

Buyers use many criteria to determine the soundness and quality of a log, including, but not limited to: ring size, frost cracks, sweep, stain, back thickness, scars, crook, and color to realize the most from the sale of timber, it is recommended to seek the advice of a professional forester.
