

MISSOURI AGRICULTURE

28th Taipei International Food Show

June 27-30, 2018

Showcase Your Products Abroad

The Missouri Department of Agriculture is selecting three companies to attend the 28th Taipei International Food Show. Don't miss this unique opportunity to display your products at the Department's booth during the food show in Taipei, Taiwan.

The show attracts buyers from more than 100 countries and focuses on a multitude of products from snack foods to fresh and processed meat. Our Taiwan office director, Hank Ma, and his assistant, Phoebe Chen, will offer on-site assistance for the promotion of Missouri made and Missouri grown products.

Apply by March 16, 2018, to take advantage of networking opportunities arranged by our Department, along with one-on-one company meetings with pre-qualified buyers who are interested in your products. The selected applicants will be notified March 21, 2018 by 4 p.m.
