

Office of the Governor
State of Missouri

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Missouri agriculture contributes $88.4 billion to the State's economy and employs nearly 400,000 people; and

WHEREAS, Missouri is home to nearly 100,000 farms, 97% of which are family owned and operated; and

WHEREAS, Missouri farmers consistently rank in the top ten nationally in commodities including soybeans, beef cows, corn, broiler chickens, hogs, goats, turkeys, rice, cotton, and forest products; and

WHEREAS, Missouri farmers work every day to produce a safe and secure food supply for consumers locally and globally; and

WHEREAS, Missouri FFA and 4-H touch the lives of more than 125,000 young men and women, building up the next generation of leaders; and

WHEREAS, Missouri is home to the agricultural technology and biotechnology corridor in St. Louis and the animal health corridor in Kansas City, and is constantly making advancements to keep up with growing demand from domestic and international markets; and

WHEREAS, agriculture experiences are numerous in Missouri, through farmers' markets, agritourism venues, wineries, and the Missouri State Fair; and

WHEREAS, agriculture impacts the lives of all Missourians from the food they eat, the milk they drink, the fuel they pump into their vehicle, and the clothes they wear.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Eric Greitens, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI, do hereby proclaim the month of March 18-24, 2018, to be
