Please describe the methods your agency considered or used to reduce the impact on small businesses: State Milk Board has a regulatory responsibility, as a National Conference on Interstate Milk Shipments (NCIMS) participant, to maintain uniformity of standards. The adoption of this Code of Federal Regulations fulfills State Milk Board obligations as milk regulatory authority for State of Missouri under cooperative agreement between U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Public Health Service, FDA, and NCIMS. This is an administrative action with no new obligations for small milk production, processing, or laboratory businesses.

Please explain how your agency has involved small businesses in the development of the proposed rule: The NCIMS is a voluntary organization directed and controlled by the member States and open to all persons interested in its objective of promoting the availability of a high quality milk supply. It is governed by an Executive Board whose members include representatives from state departments of health and agriculture, the FDA, the U.S. Department of Agriculture and industry
