

TYPICAL TIMELINE FOR RULEMAKING

A typical rule filed by any state agency, excluding emergency rules, will take between 166-269 days to take effect. Each step in this process must be fully complete before moving on to the next step.

Information for this timeline has been provided by the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules' web site.

